

Free Community Concert at the Himalayan Institute Sponsored by Bridges of Peace and Hope

The world renowned, ten-man South African song, dance, and drum sensation known as Thula Sizwe will be performing one night only at the Himalayan Institute, just north of Honesdale in Bethany; and you're invited! Audiences around the world love them for their high energy singing, stepping, and sharing of traditional Zulu culture. They worked with Paul Simon and even performed at Nelson Mandela's inauguration celebration.

Tonight, let them entertain you! Come out for a FREE community concert with Thula Sizwe sponsored by Bridges of Peace and Hope, practicing peace, cooperation, and community service to make a positive difference in our schools, communities, and around the world.

For more information and to support, please visit their website at <http://www.bridgesofpeaceandhope.info/>.

The one-hour performance will begin at 7:30.

Beforehand, enjoy a vegetarian buffet prepared fresh by the chefs at the Himalayan Institute from 6:15 to 6:45 for $5.
